Date: Thu, Oct 11 Time: 7pm-10pm

Price: $400

Location: Bouley Test Kitchen - 88 West Broadway between Chambers and Warren Streets, 5th Floor

Before the term "celebrity chef" existed, there was David Bouley. Twenty-Five years ago, he opened his namesake restaurant in TriBeCa which earned 4-stars by The New York Times and the highest rating possible in the Zagat Restaurant Survey. Since then, it has become a hotbed for edible innovation and has served as a fertile teaching ground for future stars in the culinary and hospitality worlds. This dinner will welcome back some of the most famous and appreciative alumni who once donned aprons in David's restaurant to honor the man who gave them a chance. This intimate dinner will take place in the Bouley Test Kitchen, a cook's quarters with no boundaries. Help us celebrate the silver anniversary of an innovator who never stopped shining.
